

What is UCNSAC?

The University College of the North Student Association Council The Pas (UCNSAC) is a collective of student leaders dedicated to creating a positive impact within the campus community. Getting involved with UCNSAC gives you the chance to develop and use practical skills that are essential for your future career.

The UCNSAC provides students with opportunities to connect with their peers and engage in campus occurrences throughout the year.

UCNSAC shares students' ideas, interests, and concerns, serving as the cornerstone of student involvement. It is the most representative and influential student organization dedicated to benefiting all students.

UCNSAC positions are open to all students who are members of The Pas Campus Student Association (pay student fees) and who are enrolled full-time (workload of 60% or higher) in a post-secondary program at University College of the North The Pas Campus.

The following positions are available:

PRESIDENT

- Conduct all UCNSAC meetings.
- Act as ex-officio to all committees or clubs that have been appointed or approved by UCNSAC.
- Call, when necessary, special UCNSAC meetings, committee meetings, or club meetings.
- Act as a liaison between the University/College administration and the UCNSAC.
- Be one of two student signing officers for the UCNSAC general account.
- Coordinate the selection of UCNSAC members for various UCN Committees, such as Learning Council and Governing Council, as required.

VICE-PRESIDENT

- Act as President in the absence of the elected President.
- Aid the President upon request in the fulfillment of their duties.
- Assume the office of President in the event that the president resigns from their duties or is removed by UCNSAC.
- Ensure that all committees and clubs of UCNSAC are functioning within the terms of the constitution.

SECRETARY

- Record minutes of the UCNSAC meetings and retain for permanent reference.
- Distribute copies of the minutes as soon as possible after the meetings.
- Be responsible for collection and distribution of all correspondence received by UCNSAC.

TREASURER

- In conjunction with the Staff Financial Advisor, be responsible for submitting accurate, up to date records of all monies received and disbursed by the UCNSAC.
- Present financial information at every meeting.
- Be one of two student signing authorities for the UCNSAC.

PUBLIC RELATIONS DIRECTOR

- Be responsible for reports to the press for any UCNSAC activities.
- Be responsible for student information services such as posters, newspapers and yearbook, including arranging for and determining the interest in class, and UCNSAC photographs.

ACTIVITIES DIRECTOR

- Assist the UCN Recreation Coordinator, where applicable, in organizing and conducting intramural activities, interschool competitions and the like.
- Be responsible to the UCNSAC treasurer for all monies received concerning athletic events.
